Main Presentation (Pastor Jon Bare, Pastoral Studies Institute, WLS 2008)

Pastor Bare gave background on the Pastoral Studies Institute (PSI) team and the work in which he and the rest of the PSI team are involved. He spoke about how we became involved with Hmong outreach in Vietnam, beginning with the formation of Christian churches in the 1990s through the missionary efforts of others. Without pastoral training in place, division arose during the 2000s. The Vietnam government witnessed disunity among Hmong Christians. In 2011, the Hmong Fellowship Church recognized the need for training and reached out to Pastor Bounkeo Lor in Kansas City after finding his sermons on the internet. In 2016, our Global Hmong Committee asked Pastor Lor to present Vietnamese Hmong outreach as a ministry for WELS to consider participating in; Pastor Bare, Professor Sorum and Pastor Lor traveled to meet with the Vietnamese Hmong leaders. Members spoke of the joy of knowing Christ that had come after their pastors received the training. In 2017, Pastor Lor was called to become a full-time worker for providing training in the Hmong church. Also in 2017, Vietnamese Hmong representatives visited the WELS Center for Mission and Ministry and Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary. In 2018, the Vietnamese government declared that WELS would be the only group allowed to provide training to Hmong people-groups in Vietnam and gave permission for WELS to build an educational center. In 2019, an agreement was signed and land was purchased northwest of the airport in Hanoi. The land has been flattened and prepared for construction. Because of the pandemic, construction has not yet begun. In 2020, nine teacher assistants were installed, appointed by the 60 leaders who are being trained. We are proposing that another group of 60 men appointed by the church body will now receive training. In 2020, Pastor Joel Nitz was called to work with Pastor Lor in directing the training. (Pastor Nitz was present at our meeting and briefly addressed the assembly regarding his role.) Then Covid hit; while Pastor Bare was en route to Thailand he learned that training there would be cancelled, and soon training in Vietnam was also cancelled. Pastor Bare shared the design and purposes of the training building. Pastor Bare reported that WELS workers have been approved for religious worker visas in Vietnam. Recently the Hmong church has begun the process of approval as an independent church body. Training has begun on the Zoom platform even as it remains difficult for us to travel to Vietnam. Recently the Hmong church gathered for an 8-year anniversary service. The church has grown from 55,000 as of our first contact to now 135,000 members who are gathering on a regular basis. The Hmong church has built 6 new churches (without any funding from WELS). A rural training program has been established for local leaders to receive training from Hmong leaders who have completed the training program; 800 local leaders are currently receiving training in local circuits and conferences. Six days ago, our teaching team was able to enter Vietnam. Because of the Delta variant of the Covid virus, group training is still happening on the Zoom platform rather than in person. Two more trips are planned for 2021. Pastor Bare shared messages prepared by the president and by members of the Hmong church.

Roll of Alumni Departed to Glory since Last We Met

Professor John Brenner read the roll of 26 WLS alumni, and one other man who served in the WELS ministerium, who had departed to glory since the 2019 WLS Alumni annual meeting. The alumni then sang hymn 551, "For All the Saints," stanzas 1, 4, 7, and 8. Professor Aaron Christie was the organist for the day.

Acknowledgements, Announcements, and Adjournment

The date of the next annual meeting is anticipated to be Monday, September 21, 2022. A motion was made, supported, and carried to close the meeting. The fourteenth annual meeting of WLS Alumni adjourned at 11:43 a.m. with the singing of the doxology.

Respectfully submitted,

Pastor Nathan Ericson, Secretary
