You are cordially invited to join us on this Lutheran Heritage Study Tour. This is not your typical "off the rack" trip to Germany. We hope to put the Lutheran Reformation into perspective as we tour sites that stretch from the time of Emperor Constantine to the present. The sights, sounds, and tastes of our Lutheran heritage will come alive in some of our favorite places. Seminary students should inquire about financial aid. WELS/ELS pastors may take the tour for STM credit. WELS members are cordially invited to attend as well! This will be a small group to maximize our time together and provide easy accessibility to the sites on the itinerary. We look forward to traveling with you!
